Thanksgiving for Baptism

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the source of grace, our Easter joy.

C Amen.

26

P Look, here is water!

C Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

P Embracing baptism's promises, let us give thanks for God's actions on our behalf.

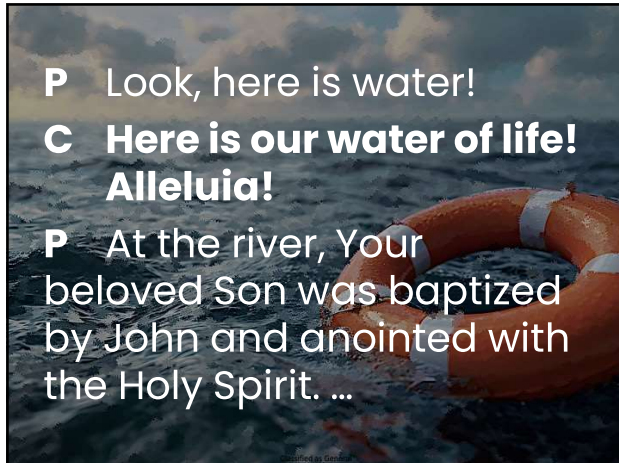

27

P We thank You, God, as Your thundering voice brought life to the waters at the dawn of creation. Adam and Eve beheld Eden's verdant rivers. The ark carried Your creation through the flood into a new day.

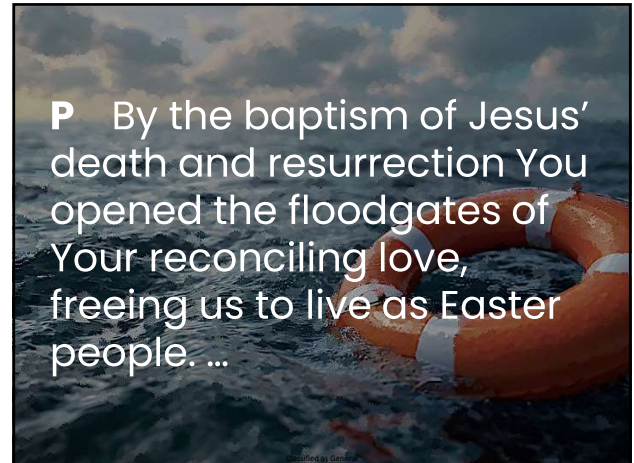

28

P Miriam led the dancing as Your people passed through the sea into freedom's land. In a desert pool the Ethiopian official entered Your boundless baptismal life. ...

42

So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

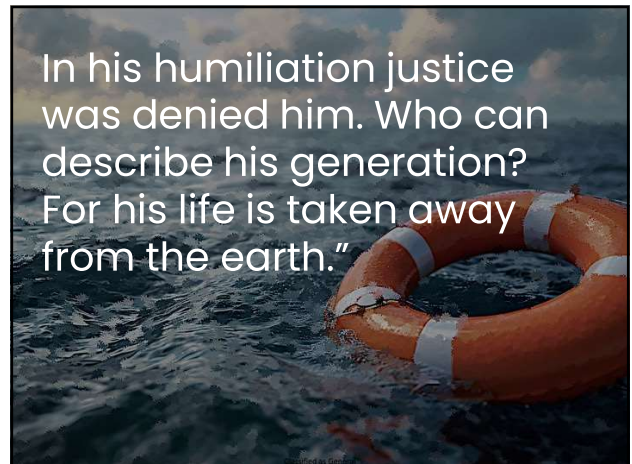

43

He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

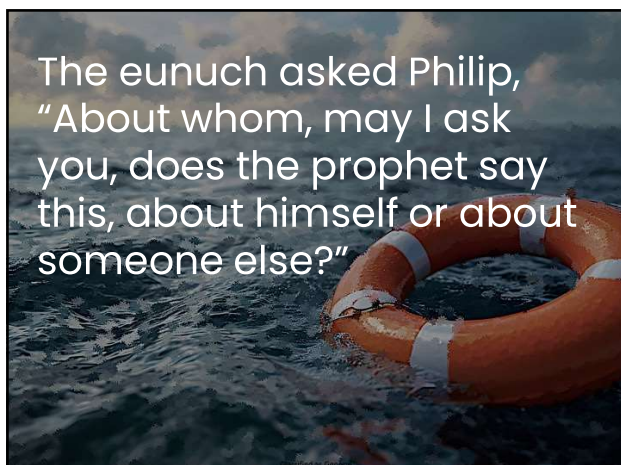

44

"Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth."

45

In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth."

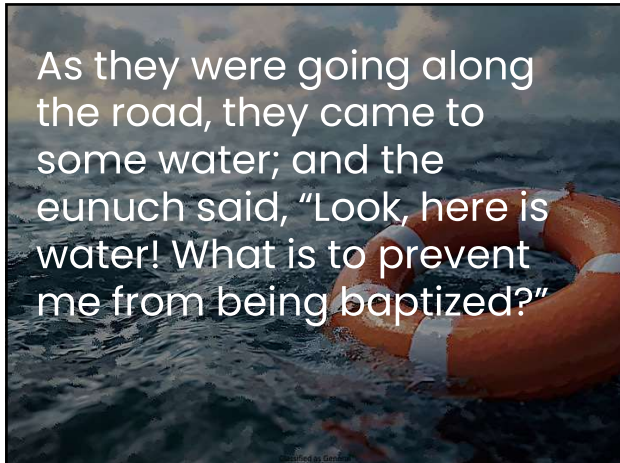

46

The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?"

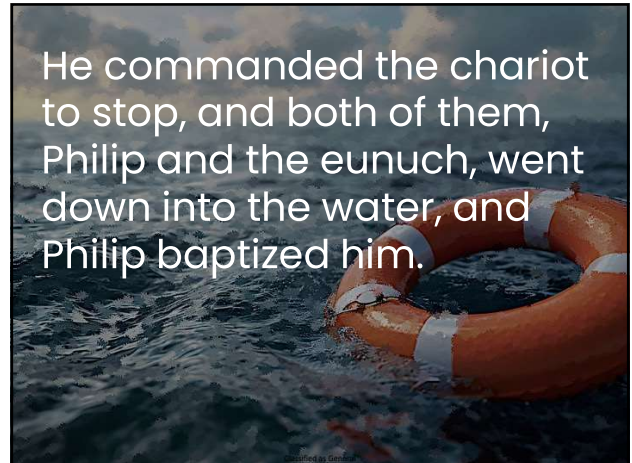

47

Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus.

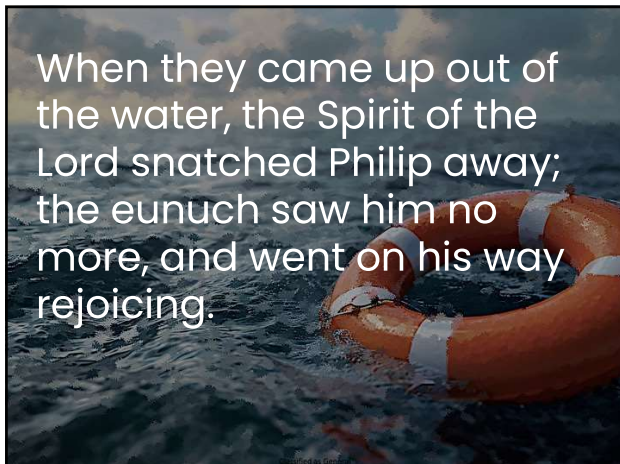

As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?"

48

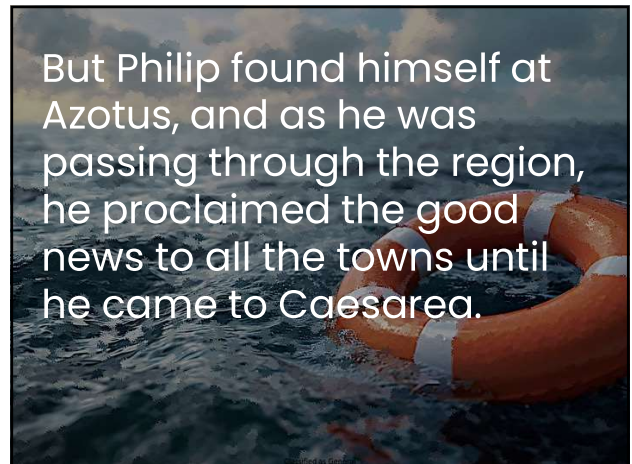

He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

49

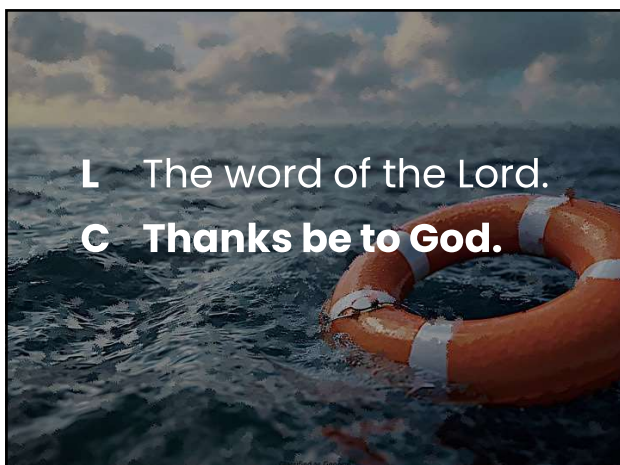

When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing.

50

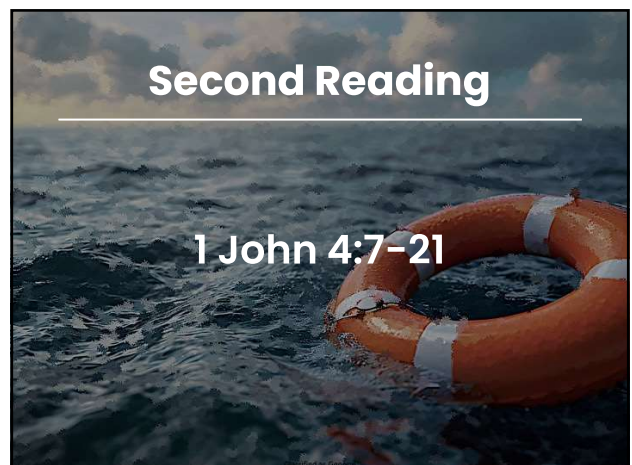

But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Gospel Reading

John 15:1-8

66

P The Gospel according to John.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

67

[Jesus said:] "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit.

68

You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me.

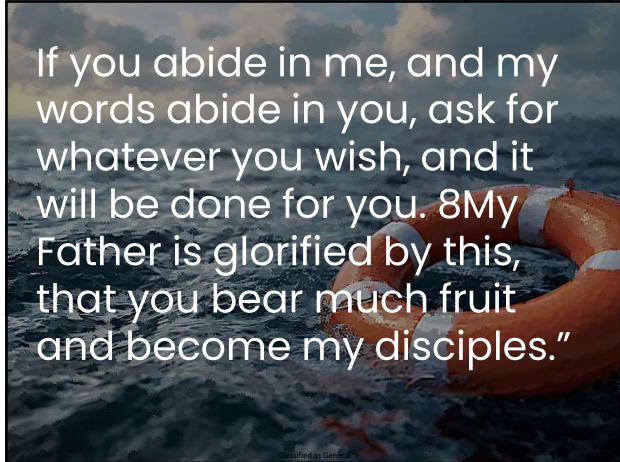

69

I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing.

70

Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned.

71

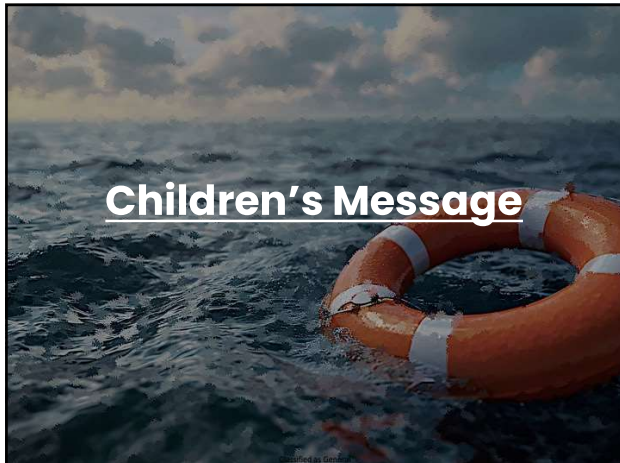

If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. 8My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

72

P The Gospel of the Lord.

Prayer of Blessing

P God, You rose from the grave and replaced fear with faith. Allow these gifts to be used to bring the promise of faith to those who have not heard Your Easter story ...

111

P Bless these gifts that they might touch all who are caught in despair. Make Your church a beacon of hope to a world in need in Jesus' name.
C Amen!

112

Victory Feast

P This is the feast of Easter victory.
C The risen Christ is present in bread and wine.

113

P At this table, we touch with our hands and taste with our lips the love which we cannot comprehend.

114

C God of Easter and everyday, You sent Your Son to redeem and renew creation, forging a covenant of love among all people. ...

115

C Throughout time, Your faithfulness, love, care, and mercy shine brightly. ...

116

C As You led Your chosen ones from slavery to the promised land, You guide us from sin to Your forgiving freedom.

117

Words of Institution

---

P In the night in which He was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying:

118

P Take and eat; this is My body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of Me.
Again, after supper, He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

119

P This cup is the new covenant in My blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of Me.

120

P Remembering His death, resurrection, and ascension, we await His glorious return. Pour out Your spirit of love upon us, uniting the wills of all who share this heavenly food, ...

121

P the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord. To Him, along with You and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever.
C Amen!

122

The Lord's Prayer

C Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

123

C Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

124

C For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
