Thanksgiving for Baptism

P Blessed be the holy Trinity, † one God, the source of grace, our Easter joy.

C Amen.

21

P Look, here is water!

C Here is our water of life! Alleluia!

P Embracing baptism's promises, let us give thanks for God's actions on our behalf.

22

P We thank You, God, as Your thundering voice brought life to the waters at the dawn of creation.

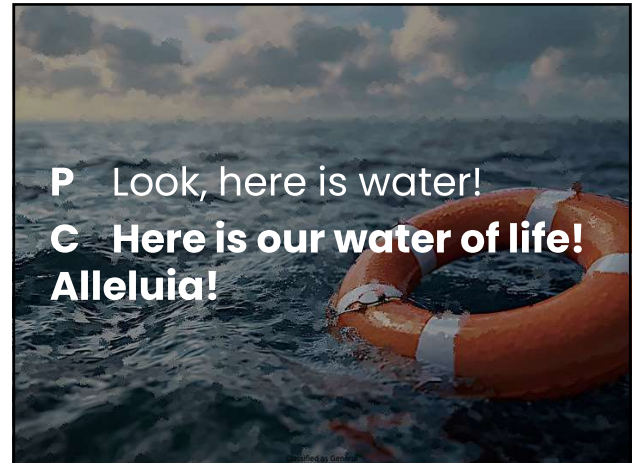

23

P Adam and Eve beheld Eden's verdant rivers. The ark carried Your creation through the flood into a new day. ...

First Reading

Acts 2:1-21

35

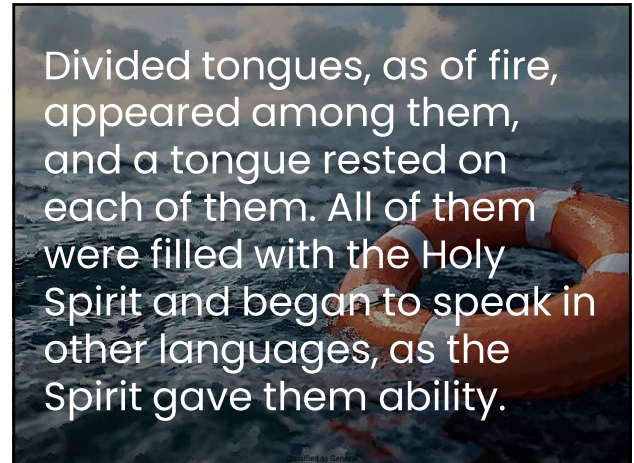

When the day of Pentecost had come, [the apostles] were all together in one place.

36

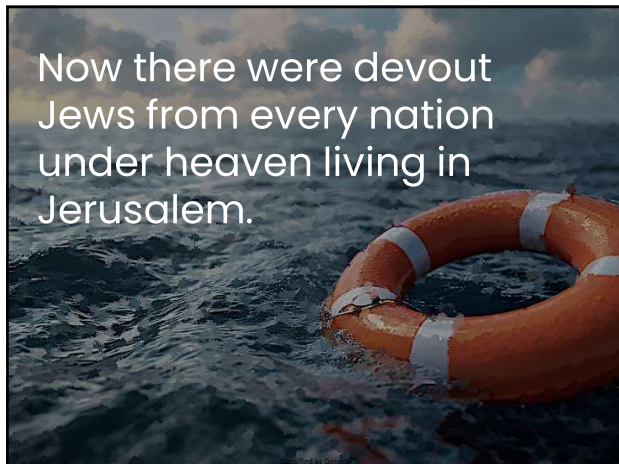

37

And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

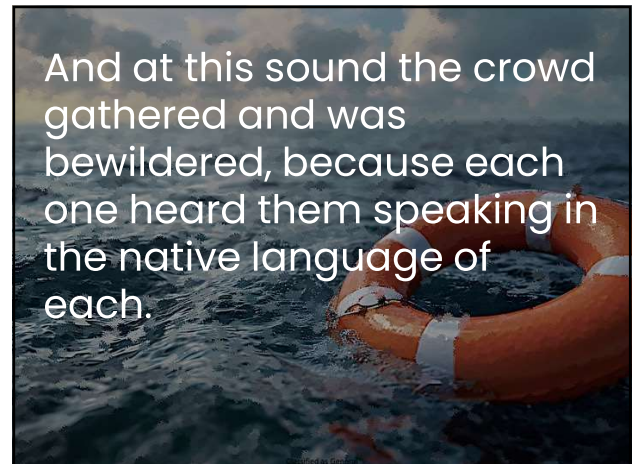

38

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

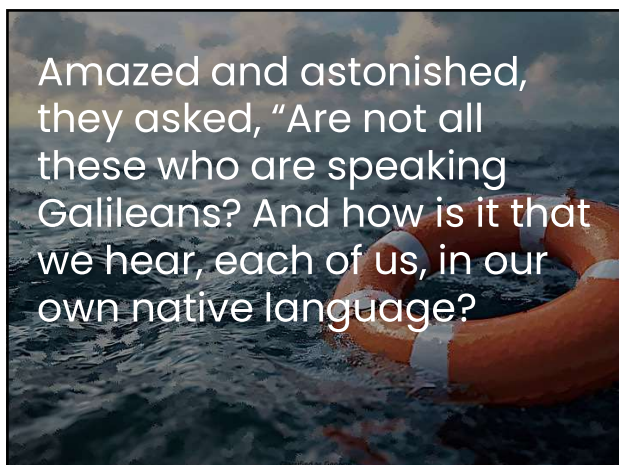

39

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.

40

And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

41

Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?"

42

Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,

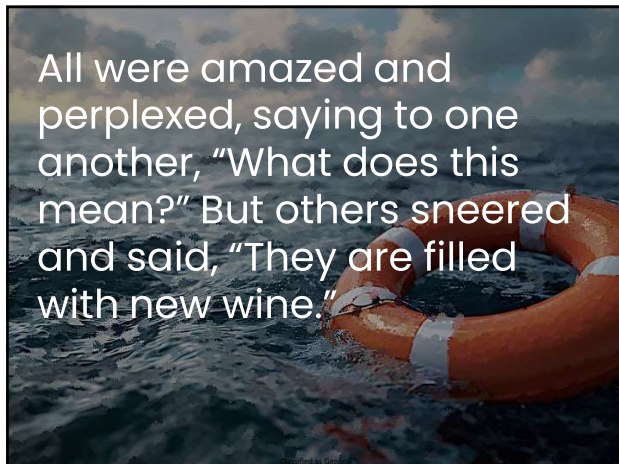

Phrygia and Pamphylia,
Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes,

43

Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear
them speaking about God's deeds of power."

44

All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

45

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.

46

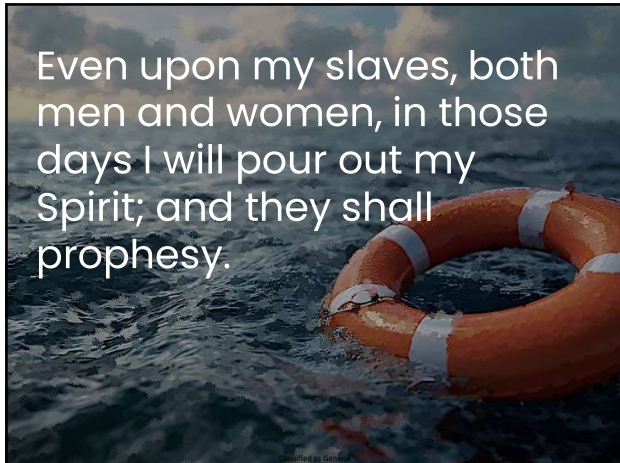

Indeed, these are not drunk,
as you suppose, for it is only
nine o'clock in the morning.
No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God
declares, that I will pour out
my Spirit upon all flesh,

and your sons and your
daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams.

100

Prayer of Blessing

P God, You rose from the grave and replaced fear with faith. Allow these gifts to be used to bring the promise of faith to those who have not heard Your Easter story ...

101

P Bless these gifts that they might touch all who are caught in despair. Make Your church a beacon of hope to a world in need in Jesus' name.

C Amen!

102

Victory Feast

P This is the feast of Easter victory.

C The risen Christ is present in bread and wine.

103

P At this table, we touch with our hands and taste with our lips the love which we cannot comprehend.

104

C God of Easter and everyday, You sent Your Son to redeem and renew creation, forging a covenant of love among all people. ...

105

C Throughout time, Your faithfulness, love, care, and mercy shine brightly. ...

106

C As You led Your chosen ones from slavery to the promised land, You guide us from sin to Your forgiving freedom.

107

Words of Institution

P In the night in which He was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to His disciples, saying:

108

P Take and eat; this is My body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of Me.

Again, after supper, He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

109

P This cup is the new covenant in My blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of Me.

110

P Remembering His death, resurrection, and ascension, we await His glorious return. Pour out Your spirit of love upon us, uniting the wills of all who share this heavenly food, ...

111

P the body and blood of Jesus Christ, our Lord. To Him, along with You and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever.

C Amen!

112

The Lord's Prayer

C Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

C Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
